

Onshore Education Program – Special Needs Business Case

This Special Needs Business Case is to be used by the Department of Education when applying for the Onshore Education Program special needs loading. Where eligible students with additional needs have been identified, a Special Needs Business Case for each eligible student requiring additional support is to be submitted.

Eligible students outlined in the arrangement are school-aged children accommodated in an Immigration Detention Facility (including an Alternative Place of Detention), covered by a Residence Determination under the Migration Act 1956 (also referred to as Community Detention), and Illegal Maritime Arrival children of school age holding a Bridging E visa (subclass 050).

Instructions

The Department of Education:

- Completes all parts of 'Complete all fields' section.
- Fills in and signs 'Declaration' section.
- Provides the signed electronic copy to education@homeaffairs.gov.au by 1 March.
- Must maintain relevant records as evidence of expenditure, for auditing purposes.

Department of Home Affairs staff will complete the 'Office use only' section.
